SATURDAY MORNING — TOWER HILL

10 A.M. THE BIRTHDAY FESTIVAL OF TOC H

Starts on Saturday morning and centres on Tower Hill until 3.45 p.m. (District and Circle Lines to Tower Hill station; also buses to the Bank, the Monument, Aldgate and Minories.)

Visitors who have not been to the City of London lately will find much modern architecture around the old buildings of St. Paul's Cathedral, Guildhall, the Royal Exchange, the Monument, London Bridge, Southwark Cathedral, etc. Around Tower Hill there are the Pool of London, Tower Bridge, parts of the Roman Wall, Talbot House, Wakefield House, Crutched Friars House, Trinity House, the Merchant Navy Memorial in Trinity Square, and much else to be seen, including the open spaces created by the Council for Tower Hill Improvement.

Members are invited to visit All Hallows (see Page Two), the Tower of London and other places stated on their Tower Hill tickets. Those wishing for a conducted tour of the Tower (without charge, except the Jewel House, 1s.) should apply on arrival at the Byward Tower to the Yeoman Warders.

— THE BIRTHDAY FESTIVAL —

10 A.M. to 3.45 P.M. ALL HALLOWS-BY-THE-TOWER

Lunch is available from 12 to 2 p.m. at Talbot House and Crutched Friars House for those who have previously obtained tickets, and elsewhere for others. The Toe H Guides on duty, wearing stewards' badges, will gladly direct all who enquire of them.

Car Parks: Behind the Port of London Authority's head office, entrance in Crutched Friars. In Trinity Square (cars only). On Tower Hill.

Those who wish to see all of the rebuilt Guild Church of ToC H and to learn of its history, its ancient treasures and its modern features, are invited to join one of the parties meeting their guides in the North Porch at the times given below. The Recitals on the new Queen Mary Organ will be given by the Organist and Director of Music, Gordon Phillips, F.R.C.O., A.R.C.M.

Conducted Tours:

10 a.m.	10.30 a.m.	11 a.m. to 11.30 a.m.
11.30 a.m.	12 noon	12.30 p.m. to 1 p.m.
1 p.m.	1.30 p.m.	2 p.m. to 2.30 p.m.
2.50 p.m.	3.5 p.m.	3.20 p.m.

Organ Recitals:

At 2.30 p.m., if the weather is fine, the Branch Banners will be borne in procession from Seething Lane to Tower Hill and will be received in All Hallows by the Founder Padre. The Te Deum (sung for the first time in English in All Hallows in 1535) will be sung before the Banner Bearers return to the Corn Exchange.

This, the first part of the one-day Festival, provides all the members attending with the best chance of meeting one another during the morning and early afternoon.

3.45 p.m. From Tower Hill to Westminster

By District or Circle Line from Tower Hill station to Westminster or St. James' Park (for the Abbey), to St. James' Park (for the Chapel). Buses: 11 or 76 from the Bank (for the Abbey, alight at Great Smith Street; for the Chapel, at the Army and Navy Stores, Victoria Street).

SATURDAY AFTERNOON — WESTMINSTER

4.30 P.M. THE BIRTHDAY FESTIVAL SERVICES AT WESTMINSTER ABBEY AND WESTMINSTER CHAPEL
